Children's Home	[illegible] 000 00
Bangor Mechanic Association	[illegible] 000 00
Working [illegible] Fund for Indigent Women	10 000 00
	$3[illegible] 0 00

These trust funds constitute a portion of the city debt, and the interest is paid to the beneficiaries as provided in the several deeds of trust under which the funds are held.

The city also owes two notes due in November, 1885 issued to cover deficiencies accrued during the past year, amounting to $20 000 00.

The aggregate direct liability is thus shown to be $[illegible] 00.

The "Hersey Fund" received by the city, by the bequest of the late Samuel F. Hersey, of Bangor, amounting originally to $100 000 00, is, by an ordinance of the city, committed to a Board of Trustees, consisting of the Mayor and City Treasurer, ex-officio with three others elected by the City Council. By the stipulations of the ordinance this Fund can never form an addition to the municipal indebtedness and is invested in productive securities, the net income of which, also in pursuance of the ordinance, is devoted to the maintenance of the Bangor Public Library.

The second annual report of the Trustees of this Fund, submitted to the City Council, February 3, 1885, shows the amount in the custody of the Trustees to be $102-[illegible] 58. This report will be published with those of the departments, and I refer you thereto for all details concerning the fund. It is a splendid charity, doing great good now, and destined to do incalculable good as the years roll by, and as the Library becomes larger and more valuable, building a noble monument, more lasting than brass, which will keep the memory of its founder alive in the gratitude of generations to come as long as the city shall endure.

RAILROAD LOANS.

To the European & North American Railway Company, due Jan. 1, 1894, $1,000 000 00.

The interest on this loan is provided for by the lessees of the Road, the Maine Central Railroad Company, and there is no anxiety that the city will ever sustain any [illegible] New England to give ungrudgingly [illegible] of our youth require. In the [illegible] Bangor [illegible] with the most advanced public sentiment.

The reports of the several school officers will show the department to be well managed, with an efficient corps of teachers. There are sixty [illegible] schools and eighty nine teachers and assistants. Three new schools have been added [illegible] and two third classes in the Grammar schools [illegible] by the increase in the number of scholars. It is gratifying to [illegible] that the number of scholars borne upon the Assessors' reports for the year [illegible] against 6,210 in that of the year preceding.

The reports recommend the sale of the Hancock street schoolhouse for several reasons, the most important being that the sanitary condition [illegible] the school house on York street is considered sufficient for the wants of that part of the city. They also state the necessity of better accommodations for the Union Square Primary School, now kept in the third story of the Grammar School building, [illegible] of which are now occupied, and the twelfth of which will soon be required for the Grammar school. It is recommended [illegible] building on the same lot.

BRIDGES

Last April [illegible] Kenduskeag stream [illegible] bridge at Morse's Mills [illegible] several rods below, and [illegible] two of the abutments of Kenduskeag bridge and also materially injured [illegible] bridge. The abutments of the bridge at Morse's Mills were rebuilt [illegible] at a cost of about $[illegible] 00. At Kenduskeag bridge two stone abutments [illegible] were constructed, and an iron bridge placed [illegible] at a cost of not far from $28 800 [illegible] temporarily repaired.

This flood did much other damage and threatened [illegible] the Custom House and other [illegible] which however was fortunately [illegible]

In view of the [illegible] damage which [illegible] Custom House and Post Office, the city government [illegible] Congress to make an appropriation to [illegible] the expense of placing proper piers and cut waters [illegible] Franklin bridge to protect the property below, and also to sustain [illegible] of the expense of constructing the two piers [illegible] Kenduskeag bridge for [illegible] to the Custom House and Post Office, and for the further reason that the Government buildings being located in the middle of the stream and thus narrowing the channel the violence of the [illegible] Kenduskeag bridge is increased. The petition of the city government was presented to Congress by Mr. Boutelle, our representative, and by his energetic and faithful efforts the matter was so brought to the attention of the proper committee of Congress as to secure at the last [illegible] appropriation to pay one-half of said construction, not exceeding however, the sum of $18 000. A principal argument which induced this appropriation was the safety to the Government buildings which it was believed would be secured by constructing proper piers and cut water at Franklin bridge. And good faith on the part of the city requires that the city, having received payment from the National government of one half of the cost of the two piers or abutments at Kenduskeag bridge should proceed without delay to secure the completion of the piers and cut-water at or near Franklin bridge.

The interruption of travel during the building of Kenduskeag Bridge, and its crowded state in busy times, have impressed on many people the need of greater facilities for crossing Kenduskeag Stream by another bridge lower down, perhaps at or near the foot of Washington street. It is believed that terminal rights could be secured at slight expense, and that the saving to the streets, the lighter cost of moving goods, and the keeping of most of the heavy teaming from the upper bridges would go far to make such a bridge a good investment. In the present state of our finances I would not recommend any action in this direction, but it is well, perhaps, that the attention of the people should be turned to a consideration of the subject.

CITY ENGINEER

The City Engineer's report contains a history in detail and at length of all the work done on the bridges just referred to. You will find in this very full information. His report, which is one of the best of those made, also contains full information of all surveys and plans made during the year, and recommendations with regard to work needed on Barker, Lincoln and McGaw streets.

SEWERS

The Superintendent of Sewers gives a complete account of the work done in his department, showing an overdrawing of the appropriation of $3,023 00. I forbear to dwell particularly on his report and his recommendations for this year, as his suggestion that a board be constituted, similar to our Water Board, to manage the sewer system, was adopted by the last council at its last meeting, and the matter consequently is largely taken from our control.

STREETS

The Street Commissioner's report gives a full statement of the work done on the streets, and of the sidewalks and culverts built and repaired, closing with a recommendation that from four to five thousand dollars be appropriated to continue the paving of the streets.

HARBOR MASTER

The report of the Harbor Master shows that the river was open to navigation from April 6 to December 19, a period of 252 days, during which 1,749 vessels of all classes arrived. He also gives a valuable [illegible] of nearly $1[illegible] from the Piscataquis Railroad, which must be met by taxation. There would seem to be no other way of making up for this than by restricting [illegible] public improvement [illegible] niggardly policy by which the works [illegible] so much to the health [illegible] of our people should be neglected [illegible] it is not too much to expect that [illegible] our city [illegible] of the most urgent [illegible]

A large portion of our people would [illegible] with regret [illegible] dwell with particular emphasis on the question relating to temperance and the suppression of vice in all its forms. [illegible] questions will constantly confront us [illegible] if we would [illegible] Concerning them I do not think [illegible] well to make any empty professions [illegible] A good record at the end of the year will [illegible] satisfy the people than [illegible] at the beginning. But I trust that we shall not be found wanting in the [illegible] use of all the ample powers which the law has given us to prevent the corruption and destruction of our youth, and to preserve the peace and purity of our homes, and whatever pertains to the moral and material welfare of all our people.

The favor of our fellow citizens who have designated us [illegible] this high [illegible] of their affairs carries with it a corresponding duty. They have a right to demand our time and attention and patient investigation of whatever properly comes before us. They have a right to demand that the several departments which have charge of the public expenditures and the execution of the public works, should be filled with honest, faithful, competent and efficient officers. Our own success depends entirely on the care with which these officers are selected. It thus [illegible] gentlemen that our city stands high among the cities of New England in whatever contributes to the comfort and happiness of the people. Let us see that this high character [illegible] receive no [illegible] hands [illegible] Let us so perform the duties [illegible] which we are called that at the end of the year if we fail to command the approval of our constituents we can at least [illegible] to have [illegible] faithfully tried to serve it.

Everything indicates now that the boat will be finished and running by May 20th.

Mr. P. McGlinchey and a Mr. Smith were driving on the Western Promenade, Portland, Friday afternoon when their horses collided, throwing the gentlemen out of their sleighs and slightly cutting Mr. Smith on the forehead. The horses were thrown to the ground and stunned, and both sleighs were demolished. It is thought that Mr. McGlinchey's horse had a rib broken, and Mr. Smith's horse was injured so severely it will have to be killed.

An exchange says: Last December, a man giving his name as Frank Plummer and professing to be a preacher of the Second Advent doctrine, came to Swan's Island, says a correspondent of the Ellsworth American. He was cordially received by citizens of that faith, and all his preaching consisted largely of sound Evangelical Christianity, all went well with him until he used such rude and abusive language to an old lady, a member of the Second Advent church [illegible] afterward called on [illegible] the people and the citizens for [illegible] A committee was chosen who [illegible] Mr. Plummer and told him he [illegible] one week to leave the Island [illegible] days after that he either left the [illegible] or secreted himself.

REMARKABLE ESCAPE
John Kuhn, of Lafayette, Ind., had a very narrow escape from death. This is his own story: "One year ago I was in the last stages of Consumption. Our best physicians gave my case up. I finally got so low that our doctor said I could not live twenty-four hours. My friends then purchased a bottle of Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs, which benefited me. I continued until I took nine bottles. I am now in perfect health, having used no other medicine."

TUESDAY, MARCH 17, 1885.

The impression prevails in Washington that the special session of the Senate will close this week.

Wiggins the Canadian weather prophet, predicts another fearful storm on or about the 18th inst., exceeding in violence anything we have experienced in years.

The statement that Secretary Bayard and Attorney General Garland had notified the clerks in their departments that they need not fear removal so long as they discharged their duties faithfully is emphatically denied. This has caused rejoicing among Democrats.

[illegible] has been nominated by the [illegible] Republicans as their candidate for Mayor. This ought to make Carter Harrison's defeat assured. After the recent elections [illegible] it would seem that the people [illegible] rise in their might and rebuke the [illegible] tricksters.

[illegible] George William [illegible] the applicants [illegible] Congressman Collins and the Franklin county Democratic leaders are working for his rival. [illegible] President of the [illegible] Service Association is mixed up in scramble for office.

[illegible] of Aroostook are much [illegible] Governor Robie's prompt recognition of their wishes in the appointment of William M. Robinson, Esq., of Houlton, Judge of the new County Court. Mr. Robinson was very cordially recommended [illegible] Aroostook bar and he is excellently qualified by ability and temperament [illegible] the position.

[illegible] Ohio Democratic Legislature seems [illegible] doing a thriving business. It has defeated every good bill coming from the [illegible] side in the Senate. [illegible] House passed every bill [illegible] presented [illegible] a Democrat. Columbus has been thrown [illegible] confusion through [illegible] legislation [illegible] solely for partisan [illegible] to re- [illegible] government.

[illegible] understood that Secretary Manning [illegible] the [illegible] of Mayor Nolan [illegible] corrupt [illegible] If counted [illegible] would take into court [illegible] Nolan was [illegible] Manning's [illegible]

[illegible] to the Commercial it will be [illegible] for the President to go wrong [illegible] appointment of the New York [illegible] master. [illegible] great difference [illegible] New York is some [illegible] from Bangor and the Commercial [illegible] to be [illegible] but we [illegible] the opinion that the Democracy of New York City do not concur in any such [illegible] Nothing short of Mr. Pearson's [illegible] will [illegible] them.

St Louis Globe-Democrat well says [illegible] the Illinois Legislature [illegible] stood by [illegible] Logan [illegible] of the party all over [illegible] country [illegible] to be hoped they [illegible] under all circumstances. General Logan's course is in [illegible] good Republican [illegible] nothing [illegible] than this [illegible] action.

[illegible] Mills [illegible] West Virginia, to be Commissioner [illegible] This is a victory for [illegible] and the appointment will not end [illegible] the feud between the two factions of the party. Carlisle personally [illegible] in favor of Thompson [illegible] Morrison telegraphed from Illinois [illegible] position was given to Thompson [illegible] (Morrison) would ask nothing else [illegible] Administration. Those Democratic [illegible] Randall [illegible] to his party may have occasion to repent their indiscretion, as this [illegible] shows that the Representative [illegible] Pennsylvania is [illegible] to fight [illegible] formidable candidate [illegible] Speakership contest.

As a matter of course the Democratic [illegible] to circulate rumors [illegible] the various government departments and to hint, more or less guardedly at astounding developments that might be expected to follow a general shaking up. It will be time enough to take notice of these matters, as the Philadelphia North American, [illegible] formal charges are preferred, and [illegible] the average Republican anxious for the honor of his party, can condemn him. If by the result of this hungry [illegible] a fear of disappointment is rapidly rendering desperate, cannot be expected to be very scrupulous in their use of means to promote their ambition. Anything to win is their motto.

The recent appointment of Mr. Higgins to a position in the Treasury Department by Secretary Manning is taken as a good illustration of the difference between the fine sounding promises of the new Administration and its actual intentions. Referring to the fact that his appointment was made at the instigation of Senator Gorman, who desired to provide for one of his lieutenants, the Providence Journal says: Senator Gorman is the acting Chairman of the Democratic National Committee and of course he is to be considered. He has taken the liberty to put out of office an experienced official, an ex-Union soldier, and a man fitted for his position, in favor of an unknown quantity. Senator Gorman and Secretary Manning are known rather as politicians than as statesmen. The opening scene is not auspicious for the friends of an intelligent and honest civil service. Here is another point. President Cleveland has rather ostentatiously proclaimed that the heads of the Departments would attend to, and be responsible for, the changes in office in their several Departments. Secretary Manning has taken him at his word. We shall see what we shall see. Smooth words butter no parsnips, and if this case is to be made a precedent, all that President Cleveland has written or said in favor of civil service reform will return to him with a bitterness he might have avoided if he had said nothing. The people are not to be cheated. They will know what is going on, and will understand perfectly its political value.

Inauguration Day

The members of the new City Government took the oath of office yesterday and entered upon the active duties of the year. The address of Mayor Neally, which we print in full on the first page, is a clear and business-like document, free from all unnecessary verbiage and will be read with much interest. The different departments are shown to be in good condition and the suggestions of the Mayor are [illegible] practical. The Common Council organized by the choice of Mr. C. F. Bragg as President. Mr. Bragg is one of our young and energetic business men, is entirely familiar with the affairs of the city and will no doubt make an efficient presiding officer. Ex-Mayor Humphrey, who has been an excellent Chief Magistrate, retires from office as he entered it held in the highest esteem by his fellow citizens of all parties.

Of Interest to Postmasters.

Under the Act of March 3, 1883, for readjustment of the salaries of postmasters, in certain cases, claimants are importuned by claim agents who offer to secure speedy settlement if paid a large percentage. It is sought to convince claimants that they cannot obtain justice without such aid. The attention of the Department having been called to this matter the following circular has been issued for the information of those interested:

CIRCULAR

RELATIVE TO APPLICATIONS FOR REVIEW OF SALARIES OF POSTMASTERS OF THE THIRD, FOURTH, AND FIFTH CLASSES UNDER THE ACT OF MARCH 3, 1883.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF THE POSTMASTER GENERAL,
Washington, D. C., Feb. 13, 1885.

Postmasters who are entitled to readjustment of their salaries under the provisions of the Act of March 3, 1883, are hereby notified that their claims will be as speedily adjusted through a direct application addressed to the First Assistant Postmaster General as though they employed agents to present them before the Department. Such applications must be written and signed by the Postmaster. [illegible] the postmaster [illegible] representative [illegible] entitled to [illegible] justment. [illegible]

A Washington despatch says: Some of the bad results of hasty legislation in the closing days of the Congress have been discovered in the Naval Appropriation Bill. The section which appropriated $700,000 for the [illegible] of the new cruisers is omitted [illegible] the Sundry Civil Bill the item appropriating $8,000 for [illegible] [illegible] life saving service is omitted. Mr. W. D. Among other things he said: "Some years ago I had occasion, in the exercise of my profession as novelist to despatch a vessel on a voyage. She was going to Trieste [illegible] to the [illegible] showing [illegible] strictly nautical [illegible] but after the chapters containing the departure of the vessel had appeared in the magazine, I received a letter from an old ship captain, who told me in so many words that if I started the vessel in that style for Trieste she never would get out of Boston Harbor. I thank him and was very glad of the opportunity to correct the rigging of the ship for the republication in book form. At the same time it obliged me to say to him that the [illegible] was [illegible] going vessel I [illegible]

It reminds [illegible] of the time before the Republicans [illegible] came into power [illegible] the streets from [illegible] the cheapest of the [illegible] down by the river. His sole ambition was to become a watchman in the Treasury. One day while crossing the [illegible] bridge at Seventh street he discovered a man's body floating in the water. On examination he found that the dead man was none other than a watchman in the Treasury whom the very day before he had seen about the building. Giving a hasty alarm he ran to the Treasury, and rushing breathless into the presence of the Secretary he demanded the appointment to the vacancy.

"Why, my friend," said the Secretary, "the place has already been filled."

"Filled," shrieked the mad man, "by whom? Why I just saw his dead body pulled out of the [illegible]"

"I don't doubt that," said the Secretary, "but the place is filled, nevertheless. I have just given it to the man who saw him fall in."

Frauds on the Revenue

OTTAWA, March 16. It has been discovered by the Halifax customs authorities that a large consignment of geographies, from the firm of Thomas Nelson & Son, Edinburg were fraudulently entered under [illegible] clause in the tariff act of 1883, which permits books over seven years old to be entered free. These geographies had the date 1876 printed on the title page, but it [illegible] that they contained the figures of the census of Canada taken in 1881. It [illegible] also discovered that in other [illegible] publications sent to New Brunswick, and which also bore date of 1876, the original title page had been removed and a new one pasted in, so that the books might be passed through the customs under the free clause.

Observation of the Eclipse.

The eclipse was first observed at 12.0[illegible] to-day, standard time. Heavy clouds obscured the sun the greater part of the afternoon so that but few observations could be taken. A fraction more than one-half of the sun was covered at one time, as observed from this point.

Exhausting the President's Patience

The constant rush of visitors to the Executive Mansion has so encroached on the time of the President that he has felt impelled to make a set of rules for the reception of visitors between from 10 to 1, excepting Tuesdays and Thursdays (Cabinet days), when they will be from 10 to 12. During these hours he will receive all persons who call on official business. An hour will also be set aside every afternoon for the reception of visitors who have no business with the President, but who merely call to pay respects. The President desires to reserve the afternoons and evenings to consider [illegible] business in his office and will receive no persons outside of the hours above specified except by special appointment.

Forty-Ninth Congress—Special Session,

Senate.

WASHINGTON, March 16. Mr. Blair offered a resolution authorizing a continuation of the investigation of the differences between capital and labor. He said the investigation was practically concluded [illegible] was desired for the purpose of making a report. [illegible] objection by Mr. Cockrell consideration was postponed until to-morrow.

The Van Wyck [illegible] resolution was laid before the Senate and Mr. Eustis, of Louisiana, in a speech upon it [illegible] was personally cognizant of the fact that a great wrong had been done the people of Louisiana and wished to enter his protest against its consummation. If Congress had contemplated conferring a [illegible] grant upon the New Orleans Pacific Railroad Company the rights of the poor settlers would have been protected, but the munificence had been conferred upon this [illegible] company by an executive officer of the government and the settlers had been left at the company's mercy.

He demanded in behalf of the settlers to know what was the title which had been set up to defraud the settlers of their rights. He denied that the title was a legal title. It was true that reference had been made to opinions of the Attorney General and to reports of the Judiciary Committee of the House, but the essential features of the case had never been submitted to the Attorney General, or to a Committee of the House. Congress had never, by any proceeding, given the slightest recognition of the claim of the New Orleans Pacific Company to the lands. In his judgment it was [illegible] fraudulent [illegible]

Everybody was perfectly [illegible] the Backbone Company never [illegible] to any corporate purpose whatever, but was the mere skeleton of a derelict association, yet in 1881, by one of the most extraordinary proceedings on record, the defunct company made an assignment to the New Orleans Pacific Company and it was upon such a title that the latter based its claims.

Mr. Sherman asked what consideration was passed, if any, between the New Orleans Pacific and the Backbone Company.

Mr. Eustis replied that it was the large sum of one dollar.

Mr. Teller vigorously defended the action of the Interior Department on the Backbone grant and Mr. Van Wyck with equal vigor assailed it. A refreshing [illegible] colloquy of great length followed between Messrs. Teller and Van Wyck, and at [illegible] the Senate went into Executive session and later adjourned.

THE RAILROAD STRIKERS

The Wabash Company Offers to Restore Wages to the Old Rates—The Strikers Demand Guarantees

ST. LOUIS, March 16. The Missouri Pacific Railroad officials here state that the strikers at Sedalia, Parsons, Denison and Atchison refuse to return to work unless a written guarantee is given that none of the strikers will be discharged within a year from date, the men all return [illegible] to work, and no action be taken by the officials. The general managers of the Wabash Railroad telegraphed to the heads of the machinery and car departments of the road, stating that wages will be restored at once to the figures existing before the cut.

The Blockade Raised.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 16. The strikers here received orders late to-day from Sedalia to raise the freight blockade, and trains were started to-night. The proposed terms have been accepted by the conference committee of strikers.

CENTRAL AMERICA

General Barrios' Aggrandizing Scheme.

LIBERTAD, SAN SALVADOR, March [illegible] The decree issued by Gen. Barrios, of Guatemala, on February 28th, proclaiming the confederation of the Central American States, was kept a secret and was only brought to the knowledge of the other four Republics on March 6th, when it created the greatest indignation. On March 14th, the Congress of San Salvador, authorized the Government to employ all possible means for the defence of the country which it proclaimed in a state of seige. On account of the attitude of San Salvador, which has 8,000 men on the frontier and plenty of artillery, and also because of the action of Mexico in advancing her forces towards Guatemala, the excitement here is subsiding. The enthusiasm in San Salvador, both of the inhabitants and government is increasing, and they are resolved to die rather than accept the decree of Gen. Barrios.

NEW YORK.

A Defaulter Brought Home for Trial.

NEW YORK, March 16. Edmund Yard, the defaulter who was arrested in France, was brought here to-day on the steamer Normandie, in custody of a detective. MASSACHUSETTS.

The Embezzler, Oliver, Given Three Years in Prison.

BOSTON, March 16. In the Superior Court, to-day, Alfred D. Oliver, who pleaded guilty of the embezzlement of $12,000 from the Eastern Railroad Company, was sentenced to the Reformatory prison, at Concord, for three years.

A Suit of Interest to Landlords and Guests

In the Superior Court, to-day, in the suit of Sarah S. Merle, a young lady from New York, against J. W. Wolcott, proprietor of the Hotel Vendome, the jury returned a verdict for the defendant. This action attracted considerable attention during its trial, it being one of interest to landlords and the travelling public. It was an action to recover some $2,000, the value of diamonds and jewelry which were stolen from the plaintiff while a guest at the hotel. It appeared in evidence that the property was locked in a bureau drawer in the plaintiff's room and was stolen during her absence at a reception in the evening, the door of the room being unlocked as there was no key. It appeared that the rules of the hotel required that guests on leaving their rooms should leave their keys with the clerk at the office, and that the landlord would not be responsible for valuables lost or stolen unless given in charge of the clerk.

King opened the post prandial exercises with a short speech. Commander Fabin responded for the Grand Army, who made a speech that was heartily received by the boys.

Lakeman, and Hobson and others. Letters were read from Adjutant Gen. Dalton, Surgeon Gen. Holt, Col. George M. Atwood, and Mrs. C. E. C[illegible], daughter of Maine.

More Trouble for Parnell

Parnell, it appears, is to be attacked from an entirely new quarter. A manifesto issued by Clancy at the meeting of the national section of the Dublin municipal council, on Thursday last has been submitted to the solicitors for the crown, who have decided that it is not a seasonable document, and their action is awaited with much interest. The document advised the Nationalists to maintain an attitude of reserve to make no hostile demonstrations and no expressions of welcome and declared that the visit of the Prince and Princess of Wales to Ireland was inopportune while the unspeakably indecent [illegible] remained in possession of Dublin Castle. Saturday, Parnell explained that the document was prepared for Clancy's [illegible] and use.

Pinkham: This is to certify to the grand effects of your Vegetable Compound. My wife was suffering from a terrible disease which seemed to baffle the skill of the best medical men. She was in a poor, languid, depressed, nervous condition. We finally concluded to try your Vegetable Compound and to our great surprise the half of one bottle had not been taken before there seemed to be a thorough change in her whole condition, and now to-day she is in good health and entirely relieved from all former depressed feelings.

REMARKABLE ESCAPE.

John Kuhn, of Lafayette, Ind., had a very narrow escape from death. This is his own story, "One year ago I was in the last stages of Consumption. Our best physicians gave my case up. I finally got so low that our doctor said I could not live twenty-four hours. My friend then purchased a bottle of Dr. Wm Hall's Balsam for the Lungs, which benefited me. I continued until I am now in perfect health, having used no other medicine."

THE HALIFAX DISPATCH INCORRECT. We are authorized by F. H. Clergue Esq., to state that the Halifax despatch relating to the alleged connection of the Maine Central Railroad with the plan for the completion of the railways of Western Nova Scotia is incorrect in almost every particular. The Maine Central Company have no interest in the matter, except such as may result in a business way from the proposed connection. The fact that the proposal has been made to the government of Nova Scotia by a syndicate, in which are several gentlemen who are interested in the Maine Central Railroad, may account for the statement in the Halifax dispatch.

FROM BRADLEY. Our correspondent writes: A very pleasant entertainment was held by the members and friends of the Sabbath School at the Town Hall, Friday evening, March 13th before a large and appreciative audience. The programme presented was varied and pleasing, all the parts being well taken and well performed. Among the new features introduced was the "Song of the Sun Flower" which created a sensation. A sociable was held in the hall after the entertainment at which the young people enjoyed themselves hugely. The proceeds, upwards of fifteen dollars, go to the church.

LECTURE. President Dunn of Hillsdale College, delivered a very interesting lecture at City Hall, last evening, upon "Iceland," giving facts and incidents learned and observed by him during a visit to the island. He spoke of the history of the country, the education of the inhabitants, the wonderful and beautiful scenery about the island, and dwelled some time on the social life of the inhabitants. The lecture was quite fully illustrated. A much smaller audience was present than the lecture merited. Those who were there, however, felt amply repaid for attending.

UNION STREET LYCEUM. An unusually interesting meeting was held last evening. The subject of the Euphrates Valley proved instructive and entertaining. At the opening of the meeting Mrs. Dr. Chase sang the "Spinning song" in her usually pleasing manner. Just before the debate began, Miss Maud Rice finely rendered a piano solo, "Always in Haste." The subject of the debate for the evening, resolved, "That the education of the illiterate masses of our country is the most important question before the Nation," showed considerable study and thought upon the part of the participants. Affirmative, Miss Kidder, Mr. Heath; negative, Miss Whiting, Mr. Pike. The meeting closed with a violin solo by Miss Briggs, which received a hearty encore from the audience.

THE FIFTY MILE RACE THURSDAY. Mr. James H. Gillespie, the manager of the fifty mile go-as-you-please race which occurs in this city Thursday desires us to state that the item appearing in the Boston Sunday papers that George Hazael had been injured last Friday is in error. Mr. Richard K. Fox, of New York, telegraphed yesterday that Hazael would leave that city for Bangor this morning accompanied by his attendants and will arrive here to-morrow evening. The race has been made all the more attractive by an entry that has been pending from George D. Noremac of New York, the famous pedestrian being accepted. Peter Hegelman, the "Boy Wonder," who, when he was a member of the Manhattan Athletic Club, ran fifty miles in six hours, fifty-four minutes and fifteen seconds, has also entered. Fifteen men that are strangers in Bangor will start. James I. Doody, of the Boston Globe will act as referee in the place of James L. Lathrop, Jr., who is unable to be present.

COLBY NOTES. We have received the following items from our regular correspondent at Colby. The term at Colby commenced Thursday last with a larger number of the students present than usual at the beginning of the spring term. Three weeks will be occupied in examinations on back work, after which time the regular routine of study will be resumed by all.——The Oracle of '85 is progressing finely and bids fair to be one of the largest ever published here as well as fully up to the former standard. Eight hundred copies were taken by college. The publication will be out the middle or last of May.——The nine went into practice Monday and will continue work in the gymnasium until the grounds are suitable for out-door practice. The nine will be selected from the following men: Boyd, Putnam, Webb, '85, Kalloch, Goodwin, Larrabee '87, W. P. Goodwin, Gibbs and Pulsifer '88, the remaining position to be filled by either Wellington, '86, or Dow '88. Only four of the above men were on the nine which took the championship last year. F. F. Goodwin and Pulsifer will constitute the battery.——The contest before the literary societies on Thursday evening of the Colby Commencement, this year, will be delivered by Hon. T. B. Reed, M. C., of Portland. The poet for the occasion will be written by Mrs. Lucie [illegible] of Bangor.

RELIEF CORPS AT KENDUSKEAG. A correspondent writes: On last Thursday afternoon and evening Daniel White Relief Corps No. 11, was organized at Kenduskeag as an auxiliary to Daniel White Post No. 19 G. A. R., by National Recording Secretary Mrs. John F. Foster, assisted by National Conductor Mrs. Paul R. Seavey, with a charter membership of twenty-one and the following officers: Mrs. Annie W. Beath, President; Mrs. Dora E. Clement, S. V. P.; Mrs. Katie Everett, J. V. P.; Miss Bertha L. Stackpole, Secretary; Mrs. Alice Hall, Treasurer; Mrs. Louise Fisher, Chaplain; Mrs. Nellie C. Nason, Conductor; Mrs. Flora McDonald, Guard. After the organization of the Corps the sisters, with the comrades of Daniel White Post, and Comrades John F. Foster and Frank A. Garnsey, of B. H. Beale Post, as invited guests, assembled at the house of Slater Hall and partook of a bountiful repast. After supper was over we retired to G. A. R. Hall and the officers of the Corps were publicly installed by Mrs. Foster, assisted by Mrs. Seavey as conductor. If I am a judge of such proceedings I should say that the Mustering and Installing Officers understand their duties and that the members of the G. A. R. had better look out for their laurels. After installation remarks were made by Commander J. F. Beath, Foster and Garnsey of Beale Post, Sisters Foster and Seavey, of Beale Relief Corps and Comrades of Daniel White Post and Sisters of Daniel White Relief Corps generally. We predict a good thriving Relief Corps in Kenduskeag.

WHOLESALE CARIBOU KILLING

And the way the Poachers used a Game Warden who Seized their Game

Alex. McLain, of Mattawamkeag, the noted bear hunter and game warden was at the Windsor Hotel yesterday. Mr. McLain has recently had quite an adventure with deer poachers, the particulars of which are as follows:

On Monday, March 9th, he left Mattawamkeag and with a couple of gentlemen and a team went into Shorey & Marsh's camp on Nahmakanta Stream. This is a camp [illegible] in Burlington and the camp is about forty miles from Katahdin Iron Works. Here Mr. McLain saw signs of deer killing, and Wednesday he came out of the woods.

The next morning he put on snow shoes and went back to the camp on foot and as soon as he reached there seized six caribou hides and a part of the body of a deer. These he placed outside the door of the camp with his snow shoes. In the afternoon, and prepared to spend the night at the camp. He took off his coat containing his licenses and his hat and moccasins and threw them into a bunk. About dark he stepped to the door when to his surprise he found his hides, meat, and snow shoes had been stolen. He then went back into the camp and found that his coat and hat had also disappeared. Later in the evening his moccasins were taken also. In the morning he found his moccasins and hat and prepared to leave the camp without his coat, but one of the proprietors overtook him and gave that to him and when six miles away the same man brought him his revolver.

Mr. McLain has given the proprietors a certain length of time to produce the hides and snow shoes and says that unless they are brought to him before the expiration of that time the whole crew will come out of the woods. He could do nothing while at the camp as he was but one man against a number, but he is determined that some action shall be taken in the matter. Mr. McLain is one of our most efficient game wardens and has been after the poachers every day since Feb. 1st.

OUR ORONO LETTER

Report of the Selectmen and School Committee—Names of Scholars on the Roll of Honor—The Annual Town Meeting, the Officers Elected and Appointments made

Our correspondent (L. P. A.) writes: From the report of the Selectmen it appears that the expenditures for the past year have been as follows: For the support of the poor, $1,933.85, for highways, $1,833.16, for schools, $4,190.25, which, with other miscellaneous expenses, make a total of $10,338.07. Total valuation of real and personal estates $524,071. Ten years ago the valuation was $[illegible] larger than now. The number of polls are the same now as then, 539. Town debt March 3d, 1885, $63,873.55, a decrease of $5,019.00 during the past nine years.

From the report of the Superintending School Committee we learn that there has been prepared a graduating course of four years for the High school. It is the intention to make an arrangement whereby scholars graduating from our High school can be admitted to the State College without further examination. The following named scholars have not been absent a half day for the school year and their names have been put on the "Roll of Honor": High school—Misses Nellie F. Chaplin, Myrtle E. Denaco, Carrie E. Mansfield, Alice E. Hamilton, Alice A. Perkins, Annie Wall. Select school—Misses Carrie Oliver and Blanche Mansfield. Primary and Intermediate—Frank McNamara, Henry Shatney, Louis Shatney, Gertie M. Wilson, Frank Gilbert, Alice Hussey, Nellie Murray, Willie McKenzie, Henry Pretto, George McCann, John Betters, Mamie Hutchinson, Fred Fairbrother, Stevie Sewell.

The annual town meeting was held Monday, March 16th. Hon. J. W. Atwell was unanimously elected Moderator. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Clerk, Albert White; Selectmen, etc., R. M. Given, J. C. Wilson, R. J. Hamilton; Treasurer, Albert White; Superintending School Committee, J. C. Wilson; Auditor of Accounts, Samuel Libbey; Fire Wards, William Thompson, Charles M. Vinal and W. H. Colburn; Collector of Taxes, Alanson Kenney.

The town appropriated for highways $1,250, schools $2,175, Free High School $600, incidentals $2,500, support of poor $1,200, fire department $300, street lamps $200, fire bell on Town Hall $250, improving the Cemeteries $100, cistern $200, repairing Monitor Engine $300, sidewalk on Hill street $50. Total amount assessed, $9,175. Voted to tax dogs $1. Voted that the Selectmen be instructed to demand that the Railroad Company either open Launes street as a highway or give to the town land enough for a street on the east side of the railroad. Voted to insure the Fire Wards to place Tiger Engine and its apparatus at the Basin Mills. Voted to pay the members of the Monitor and Eagle Engine Companies $3 per annum, neither company to draw for more than sixty men. Voted that a discount of 10 per cent. be made on all taxes paid on or before the 1st day of August next.

It was the most exciting town meeting held for years, although it was entirely non-partisan. Some of the old residents called it an old fashioned town meeting. The contest for the offices of Selectmen was hot, although the best of feeling prevailed. It was necessary to have four ballots on the third Selectman before there was a choice.

BAND OF HOPE

Report of the Superintendent for the Third Quarter 1884-85

The W. C. T. U. Band of Hope closed its third quarter with the last Sabbath of winter. This has been the most successful term so far. Notwithstanding the many stormy Sundays there has never been a session with an attendance of less than one hundred and the average has been one hundred and fifty. Very many of the children have been absent on account of sickness. The general deportment of the school has greatly improved since our last quarter's report. For this we are greatly indebted to Mrs. Lancaster, the Assistant Superintendent, as well as to the teachers for their punctual attendance and self sacrificing spirit. May they be richly rewarded by Him who has said "Cast thy bread upon the waters and thou shalt find it after many days." Every Sunday new members have been added. Over one hundred has joined since our last quarterly report, making a total of over [illegible]. Several new and competent teachers have come to our aid. Since we organized three of our number have died. While we mourn their loss and deeply sympathize with bereaved parents and friends, our hearts have been cheered and we take courage since we learn of their fidelity to the pledge by their persistent refusal to take any intoxicants although ordered by a physician. No commendations are better than these for the one who runs [illegible] And well may we adopt the language of the song so often sung in our sessions: "Tremble, Tremble King Alcohol, We shall Grow Up." Themes of study have been successively during the last quarter: Signing the Pledge, the Power of Habit, Appetite for Drink, How Formed, Moderate Drinking and Drunkenness, Intoxicating Drinks and Home, Intemperance and Society, Intemperance and Intelligence, Intemperance and Public Schools, Labor and Skill, Profanity, Tobacco, General Review.

The Band of Hope meets every Sunday at 3 P. M. in the First Parish vestry.

CITY REPORTS.

Report of the Street Commissioner.

BANGOR, March 13, 1885.

To the City Council:

Gentlemen—The Street Commissioner begs leave to submit his report for the year 1884-5. The following is a statement of the receipts and expenditures of the Highway Department, under my administration:

Receipts, $20,010.55; expenditures, $20,[illegible]; balance over-drawn, $377.[illegible].

In addition to the repairs upon streets and sidewalks, we have built new and repaired a large number of culverts, for quite a number of them we have substituted stone. We were obliged to build over the large culvert on the Levant road, it having fallen in last spring. We also built a culvert on Milford street, which has been long needed, which occasioned quite a large amount of filling.

We have built new quite a number of concrete cross walks, and repaired a large amount of concrete sidewalks; we have used as much material as last year, but the larger portion of it was for repairing. We have rebuilt quite a number of stone cross walks which were in a bad condition.

I hope the City Government will think advisable to expend four or five thousand dollars in stone paving the next year. I think it economy for the City to do each year what it can afford.

We have eleven horses, the most of them in very good order; our carts, sleds and tools are in good repair. When not otherwise employed, we have used the city teams in hauling gravel to be spread upon the streets, where needed, as early in the spring as the season will permit. Since the middle of January we have had to handle a very large amount of snow, and it has drawn quite heavily on our appropriations.

The commissioner would take this opportunity to bear testimony to the zeal and ability of the committee on streets and highways, and to acknowledge his indebtedness to them, and for many courtesies extended by them.

Respectfully submitted,
A. K. ROLLINS,
Street Commissioner.

Report of the City Marshal.

MARSHAL'S OFFICE,
Bangor, March 2, 1885.

To the City Council:

Gentlemen—I have the honor of submitting to you my seventh annual report of the Police Department, for the past year: The conduct and discipline of the force has been good, and the rules and regulations have been complied with most cheerfully.

Whole number of arrests,	672
Applied for shelter,	256

Three persons were sent to the Insane Asylum. One girl was sent to the Industrial School at Hallowell. One boy has been sent to the Reform School, for a common runaway.

The night force found 105 places of business unlocked and otherwise exposed. These places were all of them either taken charge of by the officers or else properly secured. 44 of these places were on the East side, and 62 on the West side, of the [illegible].

Forty-two gallons of liquor were seized and destroyed.

For the expenditures in this department, I have respectfully referred to the report of the City Treasurer.

In closing this report I wish to extend my sincere thanks to you all for your generous consideration and assistance.

Yours very respectfully,
WM. F. REED, City Marshal.

Camp Meeting John

REACHES HIS NINETIETH BIRTHDAY, HALE AND HEARTY.

[Boston Journal.]

"Camp Meeting" John Allen sat in the lower apartments of his son-in-law, School street, Friday afternoon, rocking contentedly before the bright, warm fire and enjoying with all the animation of youth the cheerful scene within doors and [illegible].

No one would have taken the old veteran to be verging on his tenth decade, yet this was in fact the last day of his eighty-ninth year. His clean cut well marked features were wrinkled only with a few lines which such advanced age must necessarily bring, his eyes were as sharp and twinkling as ever, while the firmly-drawn mouth denoted the strength of character and intellect that has always marked the well known [illegible] of Maine. Over his high forehead clustered a rich mass of silver hair, standing almost straight upright [illegible] the energetic friction of the old gentleman's hand, as he ran it over and over through the locks when relating some highly appreciative story. He was a perfect picture of hale and happy old age. Not were his outward characteristics alone remarkable. A wonderful retention of memory, of eyesight, of hearing and of physical and mental strength marked the famed Methodist evangelist. He talked of topics past and present with a vigor which showed a thorough comprehension of their import and discussed a recent political question with a clearness and understanding that was akin to statesmanship." Ninety years ago! John Allen has been born in a little log cabin in [illegible], Me., and his subsequent career as a mechanic, and after his thirtieth year as a minister of the Gospel, is known throughout New England.

"Yes," said Mr. Allen, as he stretched his feet so as to bring them nearer the comfortable fire, "I intended to celebrate my ninetieth birthday with all the family, but circumstances have prevented, so that I shall postpone it—not the birthday, but the celebration—and spend the day quietly with my friend Dr. Cullis. Ninety years ago I was born; sixty years ago I became converted, and I am now a [illegible] preacher. For ten years I was an evangelist, like a manufacturing establishment, having more orders than I could fill. In that time I have attended 400 camp-meetings and as many temperance meetings."

"You have always been a temperance advocate, have you not?" was asked of the gentleman.

"In early life I used to drink. But sixty years ago I signed a pledge. That one, though, I didn't exactly keep. It was a pledge of my own, and after I signed it I put it away in a drawer; didn't let anybody know I had signed it. Afterward, when I was with some friends who wanted me to drink, I took a little and spoilt my pledge. So I went right home and rubbed out the date, and just changed that over. Then I signed a society pledge, and never drank liquor as a beverage afterward. Fifty-five years ago I threw out tobacco, and I haven't touched a particle as big as a mouse's ear since."

"Your faculties are all good, are they not, Mr. Allen?"

"Well, I shouldn't want any one to insult me bad or——," the stout ivory handled cane shook in air, the chair rebounded in rocking, and the gentleman therein laughed a good round, hearty laugh—perhaps at the thought of what might happen.

He was asked if he ever used manuscript. He never did. "I used to be at political conventions where Mr. Blaine was," he continued, "and I made a prayer there once, which Mr. Blaine wanted a copy of. He sent to me and offered compensation for a copy. I replied that I didn't write out my prayers, and if I did they were not for sale."

"Do you read much nowadays?"

"I read the newspapers every day."

"Anything else?"

"O, the Bible, the Bible every day."

The subject branched upon the recent news of the Inaugural. "Yes," said the veteran citizen of Maine, alluding to Mr. Cleveland; "I want to see how they are extolling that pious man. I read his address through, and don't see anything so terrible bad or deep in it. It was commonplace; some things could be construed either one way or the other. I didn't see any particular ability manifested!" Mr. Allen told how he had "cornered" a lawyer in his town on election day. "Allen," said the man of legal acquirements, "how are you going to vote? I want to know, for I'm determined to vote the opposite." Like a ball from a rifle came the reply, quickly and to the point: "I'm going to vote right." "By George," exclaimed he of the bar, "you've got me."

Rev. Mr. Allen has married 192 couples, and he has many a tale to tell of the way he used to receive his pay, oftentimes in corn and produce. One woman "wanted her name changed"—as Mr. Allen put it—so he married her to the "man." The happy husband, at the finis of the ceremony, pulled out nine shillings, declaring, as he handed them to the clergyman: "There, I think that's as much as it is worth." Quoth Mr. Allen instanter, "You've got a cheap concern, then."

There was a revival in Franklin county, Maine, and the Presiding Elder failed to get round in time. Finally, after a tedious delay he came, and then he preached to the young converts, who had been waiting so long for a full hour and twenty minutes from the text, "Feed my lambs." When he had ended his lengthy discourse Mr. Allen arose from his seat and declared that in order for lambs to do well, three things were necessary. First, feed 'em in season; second, give 'em a little at a time; and third, give it to 'em warm." Whether the worthy Elder learned the significance of the little platitude remained unknown; probably he appreciated the point.

Another time, at a meeting of Methodist ministers, there happened to be a Baptist divine. The assembly was discussing the question, "Methodist Doctrine and Economy," and in courtesy called upon the stranger for his opinion. He declared that Methodists accomplished a great deal, no doubt, but there was too much machinery attached to their economy. The Chairman called upon Brother Allen for his opinion. "Well," he said, "there may be considerable machinery in Methodism, but it don't take quite so much water to run it."

The easy chair rocked, the low shoes rapped against each other, the ivory handled cane waved, all in appropriate rhythm to the flowing tales for over an hour, and then the visitors reluctantly took their departure, leaving the worthy old gentleman to meditate alone on the happy and successful life of "Camp-Meeting" John Allen.

J. D. GLYNN,
NO. 8 STATE ST.

WARREN LELAND,

whom everybody knows as the successful manager of the Largest Hotel Enterprises

of America, says that while a passenger from New York on board a ship going around Cape Horn, in the early days of emigration to California, he learned that one of the officers of the vessel had cured himself, during the voyage, of an obstinate disease by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Since then Mr. LELAND has recommended AYER'S SARSAPARILLA in many similar cases, and he has never yet heard of its failure to effect a radical cure.

Some years ago one of Mr. LELAND'S farm laborers bruised his leg. Owing to the bad state of his blood, an ugly scrofulous swelling or lump appeared on the injured limb. Horrible itching of the skin, with burning and darting pains through the lump, made life almost intolerable. The leg became enormously enlarged, and running ulcers formed, discharging great quantities of extremely offensive matter. No treatment was of any avail until the man, by Mr. LELAND'S direction, was supplied with AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, which allayed the pain and irritation, healed the sores, removed the swelling, and completely restored the limb to use.

Mr. LELAND has personally used for Rheumatism, with entire success; and, after careful observation, declares that, in his belief, there is no medicine in the world equal to it for the cure of Liver Disorders, Gout, the effects of high living, Salt Rheum, Sores, Eruptions, and all the various forms of blood diseases.

We have Mr. LELAND'S permission to invite all who may desire further evidence in regard to the extraordinary curative powers of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA to see him personally either at his mammoth Ocean Hotel, Long Branch, or at the popular Leland Hotel, Broadway, 27th and 28th Streets, New York. Mr. LELAND'S extensive knowledge of the good done by this unequalled eradicator of blood poisons enables him to give inquirers much valuable information.

HUDSON RIVER R. R.

Conductor Hellus Says Something of Interest to All Travellers.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Feb. 22, 1884.

Dr. D. Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y.

Dear Sir: I have used your medicine, called DR. KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY, for Indigestion and Dizziness, to which I was subject at times, and know from experience that it is worthy of all that can be said of it for disorders of that kind. Respectfully, W. S. HELLUS.

60 Harrison Street.

That Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is extensively used along the line of the Hudson River Railroad, is shown by the following from Tarrytown. The writer is none other than Mr. DeRevere, the Station Agent of the Hudson River Railroad Company at Tarrytown, a man well known in that community:

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., Feb. 22, 1884.

Dr. D. Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y.—

DEAR SIR:—For a long time I was troubled with severe attacks of Dizziness and Blind Sick Headaches. I thought it was due to impure blood and a disordered state of the system. I was advised to try FAVORITE REMEDY. I did so, and have been completely cured. It's the best thing I ever heard of for any disorder of that nature, and I've recommended it to many with like success.

A. DEREVERE.

DR. KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY is not confined in its sphere of usefulness to one state or locality, but is hailed as a boon by hundreds in every State, as the following letter from Millville, N. J., will show.

MILLVILLE, N. J.

Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y.—

DEAR SIR:—I had been a sufferer from Dyspepsia from the time I was sixteen years old. I had consulted various physicians, but could find no relief, therefore had almost given up in despair of ever recovering my health, when DR. KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY was recommended, which I tried and have been cured. It's the best medicine I ever knew of, and we have the greatest confidence in it. MRS. S. C. DOUGHERTY.

MALARIA.

As an anti-periodical medicine

DR. DAVID KENNEDY'S

has won golden opinions. No traveler should consider his outfit complete unless it includes a bottle of this medicine. If you are exposed to frequent changes of climate, food and water, Favorite Remedy should always be within your reach. It expels malarial poisons, and is the best preventive of chills and malarial fever in the world. It is especially offered as a trustworthy specific for the cure of Kidney and Liver complaints, Constipation and all disorders arising from an impure state of the blood. To women who suffer from any of the ills peculiar to their sex Favorite Remedy is constantly proving itself an unfailing friend—a real blessing. Address the proprietor, Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. AN AGED BAPTIST MINISTER.

Two More Important Cases.

Yet again I met in Columbus, Ga., a few days ago, and meeting the venerable brother, J. H. Campbell, we asked him for the news. His reply was, "I have two more important cures effected by Swift's Specific to report." This venerable man is known far and wide for his unremitting labors of love in the behalf of the poor of Columbus. It will be remembered that the Swift Specific Co. has donated quite an amount of their famous medicine, to be distributed by Mr. Campbell among the poor of the city, hence his report. He said:

"I have just seen a lady who has been greatly annoyed by a tetter in one of her hands. I had given her Swift's Specific. She said she had been treated by several physicians during the past three or four years with other remedies but without giving any relief. I suggested Swift's Specific, and she took four bottles and is now apparently perfectly well. Her hand is smooth, and not a sign of the disease is left. It is marvelous how this medicine renovates the system."

"What about the other case?"

"Well, that was a lady, also. She had been badly affected with eczema for four years. Her face, ly and arms, as well as her body, were covered with sores and scabs. AYER'S PILLS.

A large proportion of the diseases which cause human suffering result from derangement of the stomach, bowels, and liver. AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS act directly upon these organs, and are especially designed to cure the diseases caused by their derangement, including Constipation, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Headache, Dysentery, and a host of other ailments, for all of which they are a safe, sure, prompt, and pleasant remedy. The extensive use of these Pills by eminent physicians in regular practice, shows unmistakably the estimation in which they are held by the medical profession.

These Pills are compounded of vegetable substances only, and are absolutely free from calomel or any other injurious ingredient.

A Sufferer from Headache writes:

"AYER'S PILLS are invaluable to me, and are my constant companion. I have been a severe sufferer from Headache, and your Pills are the only thing I could look to for relief. One dose will quickly move my bowels and free my head from pain. They are the most effective and the easiest physic I have ever found. It is a pleasure to me to speak in their praise, and I always do so when occasion offers.

W. L. PAGE, of W. L. Page & Bro."

Franklin St., Richmond, Va., June 3, 1882.

"I have used AYER'S PILLS in numberless instances as recommended by you, and have never known them to fail to accomplish the desired result. We constantly keep them on hand at our home, and prize them as a pleasant, safe, and reliable family medicine. FOR DYSPEPSIA they are invaluable.

J. T. HAYES."

Mexia, Texas, June 17, 1882.

The Rev. FRANCIS B. HARLOWE, writing from Atlanta, Ga., says: "For some years past I have been subject to constipation, from which, in spite of the use of medicines of various kinds, I suffered increasing inconvenience, until some months ago I began taking AYER'S PILLS. They have entirely corrected the costive habit, and have vastly improved my general health."

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS correct irregularities of the bowels, stimulate the appetite and digestion, and by their prompt and thorough action give tone and vigor to the whole physical economy.
